ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT PREHEARING EXCHANGE

By motion dated December 3, 1993 Respondent seeks to supplement its prehearing exchange with attachments one, two, three, four, and six to its motion for accelerated decision of that same date.

In its December 9, 1993 response, Complainant objects to one of the proposed exhibits--the affidavit of Jill Knickerbocker (attachment one). Complainant argues that the Respondent must first demonstrate that the affiant is unavailable before the affidavit may be introduced into evidence.

By joint filing dated December 17, 1993, Respondent withdraws that portion of its motion to supplement which relates to the affidavit of Jill Knickerbocker. In turn, Complainant does not object to the introduction of the affidavit of Jill Knickerbocker for the purpose of the Court's consideration of Respondent's Motion for Accelerated Decision.

For good cause shown, the motion to supplement the prehearing exchange, as modified by the withdrawal of the Jill Knickerbocker affidavit, is granted.
